Brenda Holdheide

Died March 18, 1973

Everybody has friends that are dear,
People they care for and long to be near.
The class of '84 lost a very dear friend,
While other students were beginning,
it became Brenda's end.
It all happened at such a young age and so fast,
It isn't fair she didn't get a life to last.
The memories of her are vague, but always close.
Those are the memories we treasure the most.
From this world she's been set free,
To be where she is meant to be.
She's left us behind to carry on,
Our lives must continue even though she is gone.

Jean Jutte

Bruce "B.J." Schwieterman

Died June 17, 1984

In 1984 B.J. Schwieterman
left this place,
The memories of him, we
will often retrace.
We've spent all of our
school year with B.J.,
It seemed like it was
just yesterday.
We wish we had more time
with him to spend,
Too bad it had to come
to such an early end.
It will be hard without
him around,
All we can do is pray and hope he is happy with what he has found.

GRADUATION

As another year passes, we will see changes in our lives. Students planning their futures — growing and maturing. This sentiment is most evident in school. "Out with the old and in with the new" might be an appropriate phrase. Change seems to be part of every aspect Fiercesome threesome!

This year the Sophomores have already adjusted to the routine of high school. They know what is expected of them and try to live up to those expectations. Ordering their class rings was one of the major events of the Sophomore's year. As they turned sixteen, the members of the Sophomore class are able to receive their drivers licenses and begin to expand their relationships. The Sophomore class became more independent and responsible as they advance in school. They await the future events to come in their lives like proms and graduation.

BRIAN SIEFRING

The first year of high school can be very frightening, yet exciting for anyone. With new surroundings, people and teachers, they have to adjust drastically from middle school. Becoming a freshman is a big step to reaching maturing and facing many new decisions.

There have been many thrilling firsts for them, such as: dances, clubs, activities, and sports. They can also look forward, with nervous anticipation, to their first big date.

We hope they made their freshman year a memorable one, so in the future they can look back and say the kids on Walnut Street have grown up.

THE ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY ON

Here before our eyes are the heads at St. Henry Consolidated Schools. Each of these men, no matter how important, are in the eyes of the public. The people choose the school board who then appoint the superintendent and the principals. They make many decisions concerning the school. Their jobs are not easy and should be respected.

At St. Henry we have three principals who are in charge of our schools. Each school is unique because they hold different age groups of students. When you walk into the elementary building all is quiet until the sound of the recess bell. This is where Mr. Dennis Brackman works and deals with the children everyday. Then the adolescence are turned over to Mr. Jim Dippold in the Middle School. Now the students have reached their last step, the high school, where Mr. Robert Condon is in charge. Their jobs are tough, but they do them to the best of their abilities.

"STRAIGHT FROM THE HEART"

This years Homecoming Festivities started off with the traditional parade including class floats, various club floats, and the high school marching band. The best float award went to the Seniors! The parade ended at the football field.

Before the game, the student body watched to hear who was going to be the 1983 Homecoming Queen. Finally the Masters of Ceremony; Kim Guilbault and Mike Staughler, announced that the Queen was Linda Goettomoeller. She was crowned by the 1982 Homecoming Queen, Rosanne Siefring. She was happily congratulated by the other attendants.

The Freshman, Sophomores, and Juniors each chose one girl to represent their class. The Senior class chose three attendants, who were Linda Goettomoeller (Queen), Nancy Stammen, and Amy Stucke.

Although we were disappointed over the 10-0 loss against the Delphos St. John's Bluejays, we did not allow this to spoil our plans for the Saturday evening homecoming dance.

"Straight from the Heart" . . . that was the theme for the 1983 Homecoming Dance. Everyone danced to the music of Z man sound system. During the dance, the homecoming court was announced again and Linda Goettomoeller and Dale Heitkamp enjoyed the traditional Royal Kiss. At this time everyone was getting action shots with their cameras. The gym was beautifully decorated with hearts and rainbows. The dance ended at 11:00, but no one was sad. The after parties were still to come.

50's Dance

Last year the cheerleaders needed to raise money for uniforms. They decided to have a dance (Sweetheart Dance), and it was a huge success. Since they had such good luck they decided to add one more dance, The 50's Dance.

Tickets then went on sale for the first day and sales ranged in the area of one ticket, but then Carol told Joe she had other plans so the cheerleader bought their ticket back. The next day they sold enough, and the dance was still on.

Everyone came bouncing in with their bobby socks and greased hair. The dance went rather well. Two hula hoops were given to Cheryl Speck and Jeff Davis for winning the Twist Contest. Marilyn Bender won a box of Bazooka Bubble Gum for winning the teany Bobber catagory, and Toby Miller received a tube of Bylcream for his well slicked hair.

The dance ended at 11:30 and all of the cheerleaders had to stay and clean up. The D.J.'s of the night were Sparky Wourms (Better known as the Wolfman), and Rick Wyerick.

JUNIORS DECORATE PROM

The Juniors did another great job of decorating for the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme "Precious Moments" was very beautifully portrayed throughout the gym with pastel colors and rainbows. With the help of the class advisor, Mrs. Post the juniors worked steadily the whole week to make the gym look its best for the Seniors. Their hard work did finally pay off when the big day arrived, and the gym looked like a ball room. The Seniors thank the Juniors for making their Prom one that they will always remember.

"Precious Moments." The theme for Prom fits perfectly because it was very precious.

This year's Prom was held in the high school gym. Crepe paper was hung in every possible place. In the middle of the gym hung a crystal ball that sparkled as everyone danced to the music played by Buschwack.

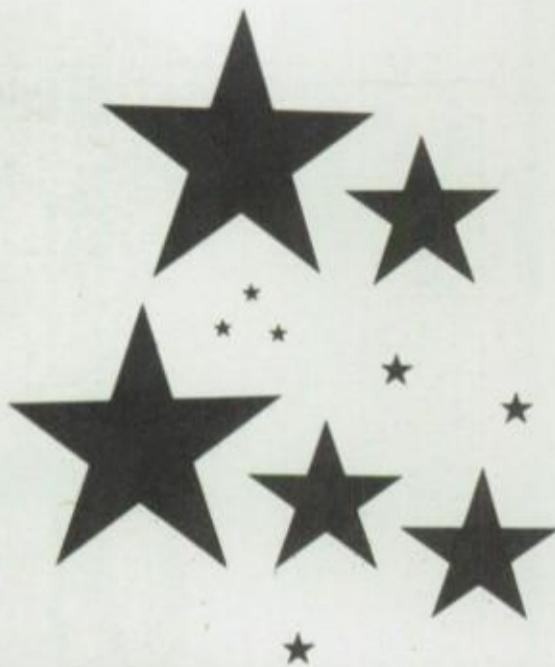

The court included Kelly Heitkamp, Dale Alt, Cheryl Speck, Joe Jones, Carol Tremper, Doug Watercutter, Lori Heitkamp, Dale Heitkamp, and Queen Angie Froning and King Ron Lange.

QUEEN CHERYL

Smith Chevrolet of Rossburg again held their annual Rossburg Queen's Contest. Cheryl Speck was chosen by her class to represent St. Henry. Joe Jones was chosen by Cheryl as her campaign manager. Because of the number of seniors that came from St. Henry to vote for Cheryl, she was crowned queen of the AA division. Kim Guilbault won a car for a week for being the winner of the National Honor Society Drawing.

The Office Education Association is a national, state, and local organization whose membership is limited to those students who take vocational office education courses in high school. The Skills which St. Henry students learn in IOE classes are used when they participate in OE contests at regional level. Six seniors had the honor of competing at state level because they placed high at regional level. This is the largest number of seniors to ever make it to state level. One senior, Ann Knapke, won 1st place and competed at national level.

This year seven seniors went to the National Leadership Conference held in Indianapolis, Indiana, along with their advisor, Mr. Thompson.

Members of OEA raise funds with bake sales, paper drives, programs for basketball and football games, and an annual brunch.

The St. Henry OEA earned National recognition for overall program (National Banner Award), and for activities on behalf of Special Olympics, community service, safety, and OEA Week. The chapter also earned state Golden Quill, Citation of Excellence, and Special Olympic awards. Nine seniors earned national Ambassador Awards and all earned Statewomen awards from the state.

BAND takes a lot of time and effort. Although there is a lot of hand work put into it, it can be fun. The BAND succeeded extremely well in marching season this year. Receiving superior ratings at contests the band was able to go to state contest. They were very pleased to receive an excellent rating and to get the chance to compete at state level. Finally the hard work of band camp had seemed to pay off. They also participated in parades, fairs, and football games.

After marching band comes concert band. Concert band is very different from marching band.

The music has to be played more musically and takes a lot of time and effort. The band this year received an excellent rating at contest, which they were very pleased with considering Miss Studebaker was out for half the season. With the help of Mr. Hansborough they succeeded very well.

STUDENT COUNCIL AND NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The STUDENT COUNCIL is composed of 3 members of each class, who are elected by their fellow classmates. They plan the assemblies, homecoming events, and other happenings in the school. This year the members spent a day attending other schools in our area. This was done so students could see how the other schools were run and to meet other people.

The NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY is one of the most prestigious clubs we have at St. Henry. Only distinguished members of the senior and junior class are selected. To be nominated, you must have an "A" or "B" average. They are elected into the society by their character, scholarship, leadership, and service. The society held their annual induction where the parents were invited. Each year the club decorates for Christmas. Mr. William Tremper is the advisor of the National Honor Society.

The INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB is a benefit and helps many of the students. Each student has a goal to complete their project for the Industrial Arts Show. The students work hard to complete a project they can be proud of. They also had a raffle in which they gave away nice projects that were made by some of the students. Their advisors were Mr. Leist and Mr. Ransbottom. They spent much of their time helping the students with their projects.

GERMAN CLUB

With the help of the advisor Mrs. Schwegman the German Club still remains one of the most active clubs. Not only did the club raffle off cakes and take care of the coat check at each basketball game, but also they had bake sales and sold "Spirit" hats. These fundraising projects wouldn't of worked without the help from each of the 55 members. The money raised each year is put toward a field trip and other various outings. This year the seniors had a wonderful time when they toured and ate out in Amishville.

many. They stayed for a month during the spring of '84. We'd like to wish the best of luck to Frauke and the 5 other exchange students. We hope they will always have good memories of their year and month at St. Henry High School.

Frauke received a honorary diploma at graduation.

ASSEMBLIES

A variety of assemblies were held this year. One was a trampoline act in which the man did many stunts on the trampoline. Another assembly was a man who showed us his skill at juggling. A man came in dressed as William Shakespeare. He told us about his life as a writer. An English gentleman also came in and taught us about English music by playing various English songs. A man came in and told us about communism and his experience in war. These assemblies not only taught us, but also gave us a break from our classes.

The girl's basketball team accomplished a great deal this past season and ended with the record of 12-11. Once again, they were coached by Marv Wourms, and assistant coach, John Bruns. Lucy Sutter, Kim Guilbault, Linda Goettomoller and Mary Jo Drolesch were the four seniors who helped lead the girls to their victories. During the past years, the girl's basketball program has shown many signs of improvement. This was proven this year when the girls captured the Sectional Title and went on to Districts. They were the first St. Henry girl's basketball team to complete such an honor. Among their defeats were Ft. Recovery and New Bremen at Sectional play. Soon after, they went on to Lima Bath to play Harden Northern and fell to the score of 49-45.

With the achievements accomplished by the team this year, the girl's basketball program will progress even more within the future.

the season was the action packed weekend when the Redskins played Covington and Delphos St. John. The mighty WALL OF RED was alive and well to cheer the team through tournament action.

This year MVP award was given to Ray Heitkamp. Ray also received an honorable mention in the MAC, and first team of the Journal Herald. Most improved award went to Kevin Westgerdes, and Gary Reichert was honored as best defensive player. Jeff Davis who was only a junior this year received honorable mention in both the MAC and Journal Herald.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders' Spark Enthusiasm In Teams

Full of pep and enthusiasm, the 1984 cheerleading squads added both color and spirit to the sidelines of games. A number of the girls attended cheerleading camp at Bluffton College, where they learned many new and exciting cheers and chants.

Along with the efforts of advisors,

Pat Puthoff and Karen Gels, both squads devised dance routines for the games.

Amy Stucke served as captain to

TOP: The wacko yearbook advisor! (Mr. Leist)

BOTTOM: Terry of Photography by Terry photographed by Dale Alt.

In the fall '83 we first met,
to learn yearbook skills we were not to forget.
Very early was stressed the basics of layout design,
and the importance of meeting all our deadlines.
We learned what terms like bleed and gutter meant,
so that we could enhance our yearbook content.
Everyone eventually learned how to crop,
and finding pictures was easy, when we would swap.
Counting those picas — one by one,
made headline fitting all the more fun.
Copy and type sheets needed many corrections,
and the layout designs were far from perfection.
The fall section was a breeze to complete,
but alphabetizing those faces was an incredible feat.
Just meeting a deadline was a reason to rejoice,
Copy was rewritten, when done impassive voice.
But now that all those deadlines are past,
we wish they wouldn't have gone by so fast.
We've had discouraging moments and humorous ones too,
now, at last, our hard work is through.
Our memories of this year, preserved in our book,
will be here forever for another last look.
